

Derry Township Ordinances...

What is Codification?

Codification defined

Webster says that codification is the arrangement of laws systematically. A municipal code is an organization of local legislation by subject matter, from the general to the specific.

In 2017, Derry Township consolidated its existing ordinances into a single ordinance, known as the “Code of the Township of Derry”. As new ordinances are enacted they are incorporated into the Code.

You may find the “Township of Derry Code” by following this link... <https://ecode360.com/DE2844>